VIVO 2021 Online Conference

June 23-25, 2021

Join us for the 12th annual international VIVO conference! The VIVO Project is proud to present our second virtual conference, offered free to the community of scholars, technologists, librarians, practitioners, and supporters of the VIVO platform around the world.

VIVO 2021 will provide an open, collegial online forum for the exchange of ideas regarding open scholarly data, semantic technologies, creative approaches to sharing data, and VIVO's impact on scholarship and research.

VIVO is:

- an open source, not-for-profit, member-supported platform that allows institutions to showcase their scholarship, publications, grants, teaching, service, and affiliations
- a collection of ontologies for representing scholarship that encourages research discovery, expert finding, network analysis and assessment of research impact.
- a global community of leaders, researchers, scientists, scholars, administrators, and developers committed to fostering collaboration beyond institutional silos.
- linked open data representing scholarship across disciplines and the world.

Sponsor the 2021 VIVO Conference

Support the VIVO community and become a VIVO 2021 Sponsor.

The $1,000 sponsorship package includes:

- Attendee lists, before and after the conference
- Chance to present a six-minute lightning talk
- A sponsored email to attendees highlighting your company's services
- Your logo on the conference website and on emails to registrants
- Acknowledgement of your company's support during the conference
- Your logo on a slide that will be included at the end of every published recorded presentation

Accessibility to research expertise has never been more critical, and we expect a large turnout for the VIVO conference. In this unprecedented time, position your organization as a supporter of open source, open access, and open science.
